Beginners Classes are suitable for new golfers or golfers who have played but have had little or no previous golf tuition. Classes run for 1 hour over 4 weeks and normally begin on the first Saturday of the month from 11-12am . A different aspect of the game is covered each week.

- Week 1 – Demonstration/Full swing
- Week 2 – Chipping
- Week 3 – Pitching
- Week 4 – Putting

Intermediate Classes are a follow up from the beginner classes and are a great way to keep up the momentum and get yourself ready to tackle the golf course. Classes are also run over 4 weeks and cover the aspects listed below. Suitable for beginners or for experienced golfers who are looking to improve their game.

- Week 1 – Bunker Play
- Week 2 – Full Swing/ Woods + Video Analysis
- Week 3 – Chipping and Pitching
- Week 4 – Putting

Beginners Course Lessons are the next step to starting your golfing career. These are to help you get enough confidence to go on the course by yourself. These are held later in the day around 3pm when the course is at it's quietest and run for a 2hour period. Classes cover rules and etiquette, course management and all forms of swing/short game technique.
